

Chapter 3

1. What does GSLE stand for?
2. Taking action translates to:
3. What are the three processes that make Girl Scouting unique from school and other extracurricular activities?
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
4. The core component of the GSLE is the:
(Before starting on a Bronze, Silver or Gold award, a girl must first complete one of these.)
5. The highest award in Girl Scouting is the Gold Award. What was this award first called in 1916?
6. On the gsctx.org Web site, go to Girls, and then Patch Programs. List three patches that seem interesting to you.
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
7. What is Founder's Day?
8. What is the Girl Scout slogan?

Chapter 4 - Engaging Girls at All Levels

Fill in the blanks:

1. The group meets for the _____ and _____ of the girls.
2. Emphasize the _____ qualities that make each girl worthy and unique.
3. _____ does not help the situation and causes only embarrassment and anger.
4. LUTE stands for _____, _____, _____ and _____.
5. Use _____ statements instead of _____ statements.
6. Leaning on a girl's _____ is invading her space and is considered annoying and rude.
7. Girls with _____ can be registered as closely as possible to their age.

Benefit
Chronological Cognitive

Disorders
Empathize
Enjoyment
Gossip
I
Listen
Positive
Tolerate
Understand
Wheelchair
You